UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
SCHOOL of BUSINESS
Executive Education

“When you come on a course such as the ICD/Rotman Directors Education Program you expect to learn something new. But what you don't expect is to enjoy it, look forward to each session, and find it fun. Furthermore, I didn't anticipate that taking part in it would make me look at all aspects of business in a new light. This positive outcome was due to the extremely high quality of the teaching staff, as well as the format of the course which is directed primarily at learning in small groups in an interactive manner. Since I first started this course I have been recommending it to pretty much everyone I know who sits on boards, and I think it should be seen as the ideal education for anyone who is either sitting on a board, planning to do so, or who interacts regularly with boards.”

Edmonton DEP 4 Graduate
