

Congratulations to the graduates of our 7th Edmonton ICD-Rotman Directors Education Program

“Public expectations of ethical and effective corporate governance and performance by Boards of Directors have never been higher, and support opportunities for Directors to contribute to the companies they serve in new and impactful ways. These expectations also heighten risks for Directors. These opportunities and risks make the ICD –Rotman program particularly relevant and important. Great topics covered by first class facilitators and discussed in a room full of talented people with great experience and expertise. All prospective – or currently serving – directors would benefit as we did.”
